

Diego Botana

MANAGING PARTNER

 +54 11 4318 9928

 dbotana@allende.com

PRACTICES

- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Bankruptcy, Insolvency and Restructuring
- Litigation and Arbitration
- Administrative

EDUCATION

- University of Buenos Aires – Lawyer
- Duke University (United States) – Master of Laws (LL.M.)
- University of Columbia (United States) – Visiting Scholar
- University of Buenos Aires – Ph.D. in Constitutional Law

LANGUAGES

- Spanish
- English

Relevant experience

- He specializes in general corporate practice, with special focus on commercial law, restructurings and shareholders litigation, mergers and acquisitions, cross border contracts, debt workouts, bankruptcy and reorganization. He also focuses in matters related to Constitutional Law.
- He acted as expert witness in the Bankruptcy Courts of the City of New York, in matters involving Argentine bankruptcy law.
- He is a regular Law Professor in the “Universidad de San Andrés”. He teaches courses related to Constitutional Law.
- He has been designated as member of a Commission to review and propose amendments to the Civil and Commercial Code of the Argentine Republic (Executive Order No. 182/2018).

Diego Botana

MANAGING PARTNER

+54 11 4318 9928

dbotana@allende.com

- He has been appointed as alternate Judge of the Federal Supreme Court of the Argentine Republic (Executive Order No. 1017/2018).
- He has been invited as lecturer in conferences and courses and has published articles and comments on law journals and other publications.
- He is a member of the Bar Association of the City of Buenos Aires and Banking Lawyers Committee.
- He has been cited as a leading practitioner in Corporate and Mergers & Acquisitions law by, among others, Latin Lawyer 250 and The Best Lawyers in Argentina.